

The Basics of Child Development TODDLERS

Toddlers need the opportunity to play safely with their caregivers because as they have fun they learn to share and engage with others. This increases their ability to regulate their emotions.

Have fun with toddlers by:

CREATING

games and toys with them using things around the house.

ENSURING

that the play space is safe and child-friendly.

GIVING

them your full attention